

Latest News

Splash Pools in the News:

July 26,2004-

David Letterman has pulled off yet another unbelievable event for his Late Show watchers and a Splash Alpha Pool was at the heart of it. A 5' deep, 17' x 78' Splash pool (50,000 gallons) was set up on 53rd Street in downtown Manhattan for the Women's US Olympic Synchronized Swimming Team to do one of their last exhibitions before leaving for the 2004 Olympic Games in Greece. Splash is proud to be a part of supporting the Olympic teams of the US! (Interesting note; the pool was set up, filled, and the water heated to 86 degrees for the team. They practiced, filmed the show and we drained the pool, disassembled it and had the street back open in 17 hours from start to finish.)

A Splash Pool Withstands a Hurricane!

On 17 September 2003, the Weather Channel said that "Hurricane Isabel will make landfall halfway between Cape Lookout and Ocracoke, NC". It did: right on top of our Splash SuperPool! Read More...

What does this mean? We'd like to think it shows off the durability of our products!

^

Earthquake October 15, 2006 - No damage to any Splash SuperPools! One pool had two bent legs, which were easily replaced. They were swimming within days!

EcoSun Solar Heating Systems now available! Call store for information and a quote. Make your pool as warm as you want it to be!

^